

GREATER ESSEX COUNTY DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

Policy: Equity and Inclusive Education

Reference No: ~~R~~AD-38

The Greater Essex County District School Board (GECDSB) embraces the rich diversity of its and systemic barriers and celebrating diversity and respect for all as Inclusive Education Strategy and the Ontario Ministry of Education 119, "Developing and Implementing Equity and Inclusive Schools (2009)".

democratic values of fairness, equity, inclusion, and respect for policies, programs, and practices. The GECDSB understands that equity is the key to student success.

identifies the following prohibited discrimination grounds in citizenship, colour, creed, disability, ethnic origin, family status, religion, indigenous, intersecting, marital status, place of origin, race, and of offences, sex, and sexual orientation.
This list is taken from the Ontario Ministry of Education's "Realizing the human qualities and attributes within a group, organization, or community include, but are not limited to, ancestry, culture, ethnicity and physical and intellectual ability, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation and status.

equity, and respectful treatment of all people. Equity does not mean special regard for individual differences.

principles of acceptance and inclusion of all students. Student see their curriculum, their physical surroundings, and the broader environment, in which all individuals are respected.